

Mauricio Ribeiro

MUSIC COMPOSER | MUSIC PRODUCER | PERFORMER

Mauricio Ribeiro is a Brazilian Composer, Music Producer, Arranger and Performing Artist with a Master's Degree in Scoring for Film, TV and Video Games at Berklee College of Music.

Composer of the main title of "Cable Girls" series, screened worldwide on Netflix, his work in the Film&TV industry also involves collaboration with the Goya Awards winners Lucio Godoy, Alejandro Amenábar and José Luis Cuerda.

By producing, arranging and playing guitar, bass and keyboards in dozens of tracks and CDs, Mauricio collaborated with several artists, highlighting a lasting partnership with the Latin Grammy Award winner Toninho Horta and the acclaimed Brazilian composer Marcus Viana.

With a career of over 28 years as a Performing Artist, has released 3 CDs and performed in Brazil, Spain, Portugal, France, Italy, Ireland and England.

CLICK HERE FOR THE FULL BIO

Promo, Portugal, 2019. Photo by Alberto Becucci

FILM | TV | VIDEOGAMES

Mauricio has worked in several Film/TV productions in Spain, collaborating with composer Lucio Godoy in orchestration, composition and music production/preparation for movies like Alejandro Amenabar's "Mientras dure la guerra" and Netflix series "Velvet collection", among many others. Mauricio has also composed and produced the main title of "The Cable Girls", screened worldwide on Netflix.

watch it on

MUSIC PRODUCTION

Mauricio has collaborated with great artists, including Latin Grammy winner Toninho Horta and TV composer Marcus Viana. One of his latest productions, "Ayom", was mentioned by the British magazine Songlines as "one of the top 10 albums of 2020". Mauricio has produced and arranged for several independent musicians and songwriters of different music genres.

listen to it on

PERFORMANCE ON STAGE/STUDIO

Mauricio Ribeiro is currently promoting his latest work, the double CD "Sozinho E Bem Acompanhado", released in 2019. The "SEBA tour" visited Brazil, Portugal, Spain and Ireland, and booking is open for 2021. Mauricio still holds different music projects in Valencia (Spain), based on Brazilian music and culture and presented with different groups and instrumentation.

"Sozinho e bem acompanhado", Portugal Tour 2019. Photo by Lucas Bois. Click on the picture to download hi-quality promo images.

check it on